STRONG VOICES RISING

A single voice hitting the right note can shatter glass.

Many voices build on that timbre and strength. They resonate. They create a vibration that can shake foundations. Change expectations. Many voices ring through, and ring true.

TEMPO is a group of women who have spoken up, risen above and defied conventions to succeed. And we are committed to helping others do the same. We are each bold, strong, smart and uniquely powerful. Together, we are unstoppable.

TOGETHER, OUR VOICES RISE.
AND THE WORLD RISES WITH US.

ABOUT TEMPO

TEMPO is a professional women's organization that connects its 450+ members who hold CEO, executive and senior leadership positions with one another and the community. Its mission is to further the impact of women leaders in Milwaukee. TEMPO provides members with the opportunity to network with leaders and future leaders and enhance their awareness of issues and trends having an impact on Milwaukee and the business community. TEMPO serves its diverse membership and community through educational programming, networking opportunities, relationship building, and mentoring, with the goal of empowering women to achieve and sustain leadership roles.

In 2015, TEMPO introduced its Emerging Women Leaders (EWL) initiative. EWL is composed of nearly 400 of Milwaukee's rising stars and high-achievers, locally recognized, community-minded change makers and inclusive up-and-coming leaders. They are future TEMPO members and represent the next generation of leadership in their industries, functions and city. EWL members have access to a multitude of benefits including professional development, community involvement, and social and networking events. EWL members can also receive individual mentoring by TEMPO members and/or from their peers in a small group setting.

ABOUT THE LEADERSHIP EVENT

2022 marks 17 years of TEMPO's signature event – The Leadership Event. The Leadership Event highlights women and men in leadership, including their empowering and significant success stories. This event provides an opportunity for attendees to receive inspiration and guidance from women and men in leadership roles as they have navigated the sometimes rocky and uphill battles and offer the perspective from someone who has "been there, done that."

The Leadership Event provides an opportunity for attendees to enhance their leadership skills with key takeaways they can bring back and incorporate into how they lead their organizations and the community. TEMPO believes women are the driving force behind successful companies and communities, and through the Leadership Event provides another opportunity to build alliances and discover how other successful leaders have achieved their goals.

The annual event provides leaders in our community the opportunity to gather around topics that propel leadership skills to the next level. The event attracts approximately 800-900 business professionals, 85% female, 15% male.

“

ABOUT OUR SPEAKER

Throughout her diverse career, Selma Blair has been one of the most versatile and exciting actresses on screen. Blair's longstanding career began with her comedic roles in pop culture classics in the early 2000s. Blair has worked with an array of acclaimed directors including Guillermo del Toro and Todd Solodnz, to name a few. Additionally, Blair was named one of Time Magazine's People of The Year in 2017 as one of their Silence Breakers.

Blair released her first Memoir titled "Mean Baby" in May 2022, which she tells the captivating story about growing up and finding her truth. Over the course of the beautiful and, at times, devastating memoir, she lays bare her addiction to alcohol, her devotion to her brilliant and complicated mother, and the moments she flirted with death. There is brutal violence, passionate love, true friendship, the gift of motherhood, and, finally, the surprising salvation of a multiple sclerosis diagnosis.

Blair can recently be seen as the subject of the documentary, Introducing, Selma Blair, which premiered to rave reviews at the 2021 SXSW Festival, where the feature won the Special Jury Recognition for Exceptional Intimacy in Storytelling. The film also won the New York Women in Film & Television Documentary Award at the Hamptons Film Festival and received three Critics Choice Documentary Award nominations, including Best Documentary Feature. The documentary, which reveals Blair's intimate and raw journey with Multiple Sclerosis, opened in theaters on October 15th. The film was released on Discovery+ on October 21st and is currently streaming on the platform.

Previously, Blair starred in the comedy/horror thriller Mom and Dad, alongside Nicholas Cage. The film, which follows a teenage girl and her younger brother as they must survive a wild 24 hours during which a mass hysteria of unknown origin causes parents to turn violently on their own kids. The film premiered at the 2017 Toronto International Film Festival and later screened at the 2017 Sitges Film Festival and the 2017 Molins Film Festival, where it was nominated for the Jury Prize for Best Film and the Audience Award for Best Films. VARIETY critic Dennis Harvey wrote "She [Blair] covers a gamut from bittersweet sympathy to farce to monstrosity, running amok like a cat on piano keys, yet hitting each note perfectly. "Mom & Dad" isn't the kind of movie they give acting awards to — but in a just world, it would be."

On television, Blair was recently seen co-starring as "Kris Jenner" in FX's The People vs. OJ Simpson: American Crime Story for Ryan Murphy. Blair also starred in Todd Solodnz's Dark Horse in 2011 as Miranda (formerly 'Vi'), alongside Christopher Walken and Mia Farrow. The film debuted at the Venice Film Festival and was later released by Virgil Films & Entertainment. Blair also starred in Todd Solodnz's Storytelling in 2001. In 2008, Blair reprised her role as Liz Sherman in Guillermo del Toro's Hellboy II: The Golden Army, after starring in the original Hellboy in 2004 (also directed by del Toro).

Blair is perhaps best well known for her scene stealing performance as 'Vivian Kensington' in MGM's hit Romantic comedy Legally Blonde, alongside Reese Witherspoon. The film was nominated in 2002 for a Golden Globe Award in the category of Best Motion Picture – Musical or Comedy. In 1999, Blair played the role of Cecile Caldwell in Cruel Intentions, alongside Reese Witherspoon, Sarah Michelle Gellar, and Ryan Phillippe. Columbia Pictures released the film, which was directed by Roger Kumble. Other film credits include the YA film After (2019) and its sequel, After We Collided (2020), based on the popular romance novels of the same name. Blair also starred in Robert Benton's Feast of Love in 2007, and John Water's A Dirty Shame in 2004. In 2002, Blair reconnected with her Cruel Intentions director Roger Kumble in The Sweetest Thing for Columbia Pictures, alongside Cameron Diaz, Christina Applegate, and Jason Bateman.

Blair also starred on television as 'Kim' on Kath & Kim for NBC from 2008-2009, opposite Molly Shannon. Blair has made memorable guest star appearances including Friends, Another Life, Heathers, Portlandia and Web Therapy. On stage, Blair starred in the World Premiere production of Rajiv Joseph's Gruesome Playground Injuries at The Alley Theater and was nominated for a Grammy Award for "Best Spoken Word Recording" for her reading of The Diary of Anne Frank. Blair currently resides in Los Angeles.
